British Schools Overseas Accreditation for The Meridian International School, Prague

This is to certify that The Meridian International School, Prague, was inspected by the School inspection Service (SIS) on 12-14 June 2018.

The Meridian International School is a good school and meets all the standards required for accreditation as a British School Overseas (BSO). It has thus been accredited as a BSO by the Department for Education (DfE) in London. Its report appears on the Department's list of accredited BSO on its website: <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/british-schools-overseas-inspection-reports/british-schools-overseas-accredited-schools-inspection-reports>

The School Inspection Service (SIS) is an independent school inspectorate which is approved by the Department for Education for the inspection of British Schools Overseas. Details of the approval of SIS appear on the DfE website: <https://www.gov.uk/guidance/british-schools-overseas-inspection-scheme>
